

A Peace of Mind & the Mountains: A luxurious hideaway at Historic Tapoco Lodge

By: Ella Whitener

The hustle and chaos of the City can appear inescapable to its busy residents- until now. A few scenic hours away from Atlanta, lies an escalated mountain experience stretched over 100+ acres named the Historic Tapoco Lodge in Robbinsville, North Carolina. This newly renovated 1930s establishment has transformed what it means to be a mountain haven, offering a luxurious stay that gives guests a sense of relaxation that connects them to nature and more importantly, themselves.

If you're longing for a secluded escape where the gentle hum of the river and the quiet stirrings of wildlife replace the noise of daily life, this mountain getaway was made for you. Miles of private trails near the Yellow Creek Falls, kayaking adventures on the nearby Lake Santeetlah idea for glossy waters and pickining, and Mountain views that are seen from the iconic Cherohala Skyway are just some of the various perks that the Lodge has to offer. Tapoco is more than a lodge—it's a destination for weddings, retreats, and reconnection. With tennis courts, lawn games, daily continental breakfast each morning, and even pet-friendly accommodations, the experience is tailored for both intimate escapes and memorable gatherings.

The rooming selection of this lodge has accommodations for every guest- ranging from cozy lodge rooms to secluded private cabins, each curated for comfort. Rustic yet chic fireplaces placed in rooms for comfort and warmth, steaming hot tubs beneath the starlight, and screened in porches that allow a first hand view of the wilderness are just some aspects that make this location more than a lodge. Whether you are enjoying relaxing, reading a book by the fire, or hosting a fun-filled getaway with family and friends, this destination is a flawless fit for refined modern comfort.

Growing an appetite from sight-seeing the scenic routes of the Smoky Mountains, stop by the Tapoco Tavern restaurant. This riverside venue well-known for its wood-fired pizzas and locally-inspired menu, is more than just a restaurant, it is an immersive experience on the Cheoah River. Guests can dine and drink while listening to the rushing water of the river next to them while also being in the center for the local wildlife. Featuring fresh local Carolina Mountain Trout to classic American burgers and craft beer- this culinary experience has flavors for every guest.

The beauty of Historic Tapoco Lodge lies in its balance, offering a peaceful escape from the pace of everyday life through the quiet pleasures of nature, while also serving as an exceptional venue for life's most memorable celebrations. This elevated travel experience has been guests' favorite travel tradition since 1930 when wanting to escape without leaving luxury behind.
